THE ART OF LIVING IN LAGOS

Rich in diversity of cultures and beliefs yet unified and strengthened in a wealth of natural resources - crude oil, natural gas, agriculture, gold, iron and steel, form part of the abundance of resources in Nigeria.

Le Méridien Eko Hotel occupies a superb site on Victoria Island, a very important business and residential district of Lagos overlooking the Kuramo Lake and the Atlantic Ocean.

Le Méridien Eko Hotel is within walking distance of the beach, 10 minutes drive to the city centre and 45 minutes to the airport. Our convenient location allows easy access to leading companies in the following sectors: banking and finance, oil and gas, telecommunication, the diplomatic corps and international organisations.

With 480 rooms, Le Méridien Eko Hotel is the largest hotel in Lagos and offers a selection of tastefully furnished rooms and suites. The natural advantage of our location gives a choice of rooms with a relaxing view of the sea or a panoramic view of the city complemented with support facilities for the international business traveller.

Every guest experience is unique thanks to a most hospitable service, a peculiar trait in the culture of the people of Lagos.

Le Méridien Eko Hotel's restaurants and bars are highly differentiated in style and concept with individual themes. Our friendly staff will delight you with courteous service as you enjoy fine continental and typically French cuisine in the "Foods of Sun" Restaurant, which features a gourmet theme.

Calm your nerves with "therapeutic" and soothing cool sea breezes at the Pool Terrace Restaurant where sizzling hot barbeques and grills spiced with "suya" are served to your relish.

The "Kuramo Sports Café" with a leisurely theme offers full buffet and à la Carte dining, serving continental and local dishes. You can catch up with events in the sporting calendar as you dine.

Our meticulously maintained swimming pool is truly a view to behold while you enjoy special cocktails and other beverages at the "Calabash Bar".

The VIP Bar Lounge at the Lobby is classic! It reflects the art and science of bartending!

With extensive conference facilities including 813m2 ballroom, private meeting rooms (including an executive Boardroom) and the 1,370 m2 Exhibition Centre, located on its secure grounds, Le Méridien Eko Hotel is the preferred venue for corporate functions and product launches.
